OVERVIEW

Beth guides clients through ever-changing local, state and federal tax law and resolution of tax disputes.

An experienced tax attorney, Beth helps clients of all sizes – corporations, partnerships, nonprofit organizations and individuals – comply with complex tax statutes. Beth researches and addresses clients' needs in areas involving Federal and state income taxes, as well as sales and use taxes and other transfer and franchise taxes. Beth also assists in civil disputes between clients and the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) or other assessing authorities, including at the audit and all appeal levels.
