OVERVIEW

Jennifer is a senior paralegal who concentrates in the areas of product liability, personal injury, and toxic tort and mass tort actions.

Jennifer is knowledgeable of all phases of the litigation process at the state and federal court levels, and has experience assisting attorneys at trial with multiparty, high-profile litigation. She facilitates national trial defense for clients, including a Fortune 1000 manufacturing company, managing day-to-day nationwide toxic tort litigation.

Assisting with cases from start to finish, Jennifer helps clients and attorneys with initial investigation, discovery, arbitration and pretrial preparation. She is responsible for preparing and filing necessary pleadings throughout the litigation proceeding, including motions, notices, stipulations and affidavits.

Jennifer has been involved with cases involving extensive discovery, including cost-effective eDiscovery. She has assisted at client sites with large-scale document productions, case strategy meetings and attorney review teams. Jennifer also has extensive experience working with various litigation databases and software.
