OVERVIEW

Faith has valued experience in a vast array of client commercial real estate matters.

On behalf of clients, Faith regularly collaborates with other major law firms, corporations, lending institutions, and various federal, state and local governmental agencies to move sophisticated real estate projects forward smoothly and on deadline. Faith has assisted in numerous multistate, multisite transactions. Clients and legal teams appreciate her knowledge and experience with a broad range of commercial real estate matters, including:

- Acquisitions and dispositions
- Complex financing transactions
- Domestic entity
- Compliance
- Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code (UCC)

Faith also has an extensive background in due diligence review in connection with purchases and sales, including American Land Title Association (ALTA)/National Society of Professional Surveyors (NSPS) survey review, zoning review and title/exception document review.
