Helping Minority- and Veteran-Owned Business Secure a Game-Changing Contract

Through the Communities for Change initiative, our attorneys helped a clean energy design/build firm negotiate and secure a multimillion-dollar contract.

Empowering Change: Zero Electric's Journey with Communities for Change and Husch Blackwell

HB Communities for Change initiative assists Zero Electric to secure a charging station, build it out, and develop the technology they will store at the station.

Experience

- Successfully represented an architectural firm in an arbitration where the owner alleged professional negligence and breach of contract, claiming more than $3 million in property damage.
- Successfully represented a civil engineering firm in an arbitration where the owner sought reimbursement for more than a million dollars in change orders issued to the general contractor.
- Obtained summary judgment for a landscape architectural firm who was sued for its design of a recreational area after a bicyclist was injured on the path and eventually passed away as a result of the accident.

Experience

- Successfully argued the following cases at the Georgia appellate level:
 - HNTB Georgia, Inc. v. Hamilton-King, 287 Ga. 641, 697 S.E.2d 770 (2010); Georgia Supreme Court upheld trial court's order excluding the plaintiff's expert and granting client's motion for summary judgment in a wrongful death claim.
 - Precision Planning, Inc. v. Rickmark Communities, Inc., 298 Ga. App. 788, 679 S.E.2d 42 (2009); Georgia Court of Appeals enforced a limitation of liability clause contained in client's contract which capped client's potential damages in underlying lawsuit.
 - RSN Properties, Inc. v. Engineering Consulting Services, Inc., 301 Ga. App. 52, 686 S.E.2d 853 (2009); Georgia Court of Appeals enforced a limitation of liability clause contained in client's contract which capped client's potential damages in underlying lawsuit.
- Negotiated numerous contractual agreements for owners, contractors and design professionals in the construction industry.
- Presented on numerous occasions to construction industry owners and professionals regarding risk management, ethic and legal obligations and contract negotiations.
- Served on collaborative pro bono legal team for Set Aside Program. Legal Aid of Nebraska screened candidates and Husch Blackwell attorneys helped participants fill out documents to nullify criminal convictions, such as shoplifting, that would otherwise impact job searches and the ability to serve in the military.
