OVERVIEW

Terri is a senior paralegal concentrating her work in the area of toxic tort.

As a legal professional with more than 30 years of experience, Terri has a knack for knowing how to help attorneys and clients in complex litigation matters. She works in the area of toxic tort, and has served as the lead paralegal for many major asbestos clients. Additionally, Terri has experience with a variety of other litigation matters such as personal injury and product liability.

Terri assists attorneys with document handling and preparation, medical record collection and summarization, and trial and witness support. She plays a critical role in facilitating communication, meeting deadlines and organizing matters so that attorneys can move client cases forward.
