OVERVIEW

Brittany's close attention to detail is crucial when assisting with matters during all phases of the litigation process.

Brittany aids senior paralegals and attorneys in fact investigation, legal research, and document preparation and production, particularly for matters related to product liability and commercial litigation. She creates and prepares subfiles, prepares trial exhibit notebooks and maintains case management databases.

Brittany has an extensive background in post-judgment recovery that includes garnishing of bank accounts and wages in Illinois and Missouri, personal property levies and bankruptcy procedures.
