OVERVIEW

Clients appreciate Dan's creativity, efficiency, and responsiveness. He gets financing deals done, even in the most challenging transactions.

Dan leads Husch Blackwell's Banking & Finance team. In his second decade of practice, Dan represents lenders and borrowers in all aspects of commercial real estate lending. Dan focuses on understanding each client's industry, its business goals, and its unique risk tolerances. Through creative problem-solving and consensus-building, Dan gets clients' deals done.

Lenders and borrowers trust Dan to represent them in the origination and servicing of construction, bridge, mezzanine, and permanent loans, including CMBS, syndicated, and participated credit facilities. Dan is knowledgeable about loans secured by multifamily, office, industrial, and retail properties. He is especially knowledgeable in the fields of storage, manufactured housing, hospitality, resort, and senior housing properties. He also helps clients resolve troubled commercial real estate loans, through loan sales, workouts, foreclosures, collections and lender-liability litigation, mechanic's lien litigation, contested receivership litigation, bankruptcy representation, and REO sales.

Dan's representative experience includes:

"He is timely and efficient and produces high-quality work."
