OVERVIEW

With a quarter century of experience in law, Sherri knows how best to support both clients and attorneys.

As a young professional, Sherri knew she enjoyed research, digging for details and diving in to challenging projects—all passions that made a career as a paralegal a perfect fit. She began her legal career at a healthcare law firm and went on to work on corporate, finance, bankruptcy, real estate and commercial litigation matters.

Today, Sherri provides paralegal support to the firm's corporate Healthcare team, performing due diligence for acquisitions and other transactions. The breadth of her experience means that she's prepared to take on any legal project and help achieve favorable results for clients.
