OVERVIEW

Melisa is a team player contributing to client solutions.

Doing her part to move clients forward is the most satisfying aspect of paralegal assistant work for Melisa. She assists attorneys on product liability and mass tort matters, such as asbestos cases, and has experience in helping lawyers on employment law and intellectual property issues.

Melisa contributes a broad range of detail-oriented tasks to successful legal teams including research, organization, preparing documents, preparing binders for expert witnesses and consolidating information for deposition.

Clients and attorneys appreciate that she's a dependable team player who is thorough in her work. She thrives on the often fast pace of getting clients and attorneys what is needed for optimal strategies and outcomes.
