OVERVIEW

Joanna enjoys when clients succeed and knows her job is helping them get there.

With more than two decades of experience assisting clients and attorneys, Joanna is a valued team member when keeping complex matters on track. She currently focuses her work on shepherding labor and employment issues through structured deadlines and necessary processes, collaborating with local, state and federal agencies. Her handling of client matters is informed by a background facilitating a wide range of client legal issues including:

- Commercial litigation
- Personal injury
- Workers' compensation
- Domestic law
- Estate planning
- Probate
- Educational law

Joanna understands that being a good listener allows her to perform effectively at all levels. Clients and legal teams appreciate her due diligence, her organizational skills and that she treats each task and client with individual attention.
