OVERVIEW

Robin assists clients and legal teams at all phases of complex commercial litigation: before, during and after trial.

Robin brings clients more than a decade of experience as a paralegal working both in-house and at law firms, with exceptional litigation and trial support skills. She has facilitated lengthy jury trials in complex, multiparty, high-profile cases concerning intellectual property, infringement and unfair competition. Clients and legal teams appreciate her writing ability as well as her attention to detail and organizational skills. Just a few of the items Robin facilitates are:

- Compiling discovery
- Due diligence reviews
- Producing and drafting documents
- Trial preparation, filings and exhibit assistance

She's aware that eDiscovery and other technology is efficient and cost-effective for clients and is adept with a range of innovative software. Robin also understands that client communication is key, and is known for keeping clients informed every step of the way throughout the litigation process.
