OVERVIEW

Clients count on Jacinda's attention to detail when reviewing and analyzing the numerous e-documents that comprise strategic litigation.

For more than a decade, Jacinda has provided clients and attorney teams with careful review and analysis of litigation e-data. She anticipates overall case strategy and spots issues as she diligently reviews thousands of e-documents. Although she works across numerous industries, she has particular experience assisting pharmaceutical clients. Jacinda is a key member of the legal team that handles thousands of eDiscovery documents during matters of:

- Toxic tort
- Product liability
- Failure to warn
- Intellectual property

Jacinda's eDiscovery Solutions legal work includes quality and relevance checks, drafting defense fact sheets, attorney-client privilege documents, and best practice recommendations on document retention and defensible destruction. She enjoys moving strategies forward smoothly and cost-efficiently, making sure to communicate her findings every step of the way to create innovative, nimble and effective legal solutions for each client.
