OVERVIEW

An experienced litigator and client advocate, Cynthia focuses her practice on complex commercial disputes.

Cynthia is committed to effective case management at all stages of litigation, from initial strategy to appeal. Clients look to her to defend their interests on a wide range of civil matters in both state and federal court. She has practiced across a broad spectrum of industry sectors – including healthcare, construction and retail services – in class action lawsuits, insurance coverage and bad faith matters, and non-compete disputes, among other sophisticated commercial litigation.

Clients value Cynthia's industry-first mindset, examining the intersection of each client's short- and long-term goals with customized litigation strategy. What she enjoys most about legal work – in or out of the courtroom – is learning about her clients' business so as to provide creative, favorable resolutions that meet their needs.
