OVERVIEW

With an eye toward compliance, Stephanie assists clients and legal teams in matters of corporate governance and private wealth.

Stephanie is known for her focus on critical details while moving client matters forward. Prior to joining the firm, she worked in licensing and compliance for a national educational institute with locations from Pennsylvania to California, so she is adept at handling client issues across Husch Blackwell's coast-to-coast footprint. Stephanie also served as a compliance analyst at an international staffing agency operating in a dozen countries. She now uses these skills to assist legal teams and clients as they:

- Meet legal deadlines
- Research statutes
- Consolidate documentation
- Review due diligence
- Facilitate compliance
- Prepare filings

Legal teams depend on Stephanie's accuracy, speed and ability to find best pathways for assisting clients in the most cost-effective and time-sensitive manner. She appreciates the opportunity to familiarize herself with each client's legal and business goals, then apply the firm's state-of-the-art technology to deliver optimal legal services as efficiently as possible.
