OVERVIEW

Clients and legal teams appreciate that Holly anticipates what's needed in labor and employment matters.

For more than a decade, Holly has worked in the legal field, assisting attorneys and clients in complex commercial litigation, construction disputes, class action claims, probate matters, corporate issues and trial preparation across the nation. She now focuses her broad range of skills on collaborating with the firm's Labor & Employment team.

Holly enjoys working closely with employers and attorneys during all phases of discovery, scheduling deadlines, trial preparation, document production and database management. She is known for her ability to organize and format millions of documents, identifying critical information necessary for effective strategies and legal solutions. Holly enjoys being at the ready with answers and meeting each deadline on behalf of employers' most complex legal issues.
