OVERVIEW

Calm under stress, Javon advocates and negotiates for clients in and out of the courtroom.

As part of the firm's Litigation & Alternative Dispute Resolution team, Javon values being part of a dispute resolution environment working coast to coast, scaling agile teams customized to defend client issues of any size or complexity. Javon handles all stages of the commercial litigation process, developing strategy and working closely with each client to align litigation goals with unique business goals.

Javon enjoys getting to know clients, their companies and their industries. He understands how stressful litigation can be, with potential outcomes that can have critical consequences for a business. Before joining the firm, Javon interned with the Hon. Craig Smith, 192nd Civil District Court.
