OVERVIEW

A commercial litigator known for calm under pressure, Emma is driven to deliver optimal resolutions for each client.

Emma enjoys guiding clients through complex claims at all stages of state and federal litigation, from initial pleadings, discovery and research, through trial and on to appeal when necessary. Emma focuses her practice on commercial litigation, assisting clients with, among other legal matters:

- Business disputes
- Breach of contract
- Toxic tort defense
- Product liability
- Breach of fiduciary duty
- Construction disputes
- Employment matters

Emma understands that although legal matters follow certain patterns, every client has unique business goals and she works to develop customized strategies and solutions for each case.
