OVERVIEW

As a commercial litigation attorney, Michael advocates for clients inside and outside of the courtroom.

Devoted to helping clients and easing worries, Michael works closely with clients to discover how resolutions to litigation align with business operations. He aims to keep companies – large and small, across industry sectors – efficiently running without interruptions. Michael assists clients with matters including:

- Business disputes
- Breach of warranty
- Breach of contract
- Breach of fiduciary duty
- Product liability

Michael is appreciated for sifting through facts, issue spotting and creative solutions to complex legal issues – making sure clients are informed every step of the way. He enjoys taking a systemic approach to breaking down clients' sophisticated litigation hurdles, reaching positive results as well as long-term operational goals.
