OVERVIEW

Katie defends clients in complex commercial litigation.

Katie is dedicated to helping clients with complex litigation matters and is particularly experienced in the insurance and insolvency sectors. She has experience serving clients overseeing insurance company receiverships, including the rehabilitation and liquidation of insurers. Katie assists with the investigation and prosecution of third party claims brought on behalf of insolvent insurers in liquidation and has navigated corporate transactions for companies involved in insurance receiverships. Additionally, Katie has experience with data security incidents, with a focus on compliance with statutory and regulatory reporting standards. She also works with commercial lenders to enforce their rights through foreclosures, litigation, and bankruptcy proceedings involving defaulted borrowers.

With a keen awareness of clients' needs, Katie's priority is to ensure clients feel supported and that she fully understands their needs and goals. Katie is steadfastly detail oriented and efficient to ensure clients receive the best outcomes and utmost service.
