OVERVIEW

With a focus on client compliance, Fred uses his two years of experience as a data privacy professional to assist our clients and attorneys with keeping up with the ever-changing, fast-paced data privacy landscape.

He does so by drafting a myriad of data privacy compliance documentation, including privacy policies, cookie policies, data processing agreements, data protection impact assessments, website checklists, and more. Fred also monitors, researches, and analyzes federal and state privacy legislation, judicial decisions, and regulatory proposals.

Fred is passionate about collaborating with our dedicated data privacy team to develop robust policies that prioritize privacy, mitigate risk, and ensure compliance with the constant-evolving consumer privacy laws.
