OVERVIEW

Alyssa's dependability, responsiveness, and strong attention to detail make her a crucial asset to the hospice and palliative care team.

Alyssa assists with research, document production, and organization for hospice investigation and transaction matters. Her years as a legal assistant taught her the value of exceptional client service, and her background as a Certified Nursing Assistant provided firsthand experience with the type of client organizations the firm represents. Alyssa has a passion for helping those in need, which she puts to good use while assisting our clients with complex, sensitive issues. She enjoys using her organizational and communication skills to help our hospice clients feel confident and satisfied with the service they receive. Alyssa's goal is to assist in any way she can so clients can worry less and focus more on their meaningful work of providing quality care to those with life-limiting illnesses.
