OVERVIEW

Rebecca is a dealmaker who advises businesses, executive teams, and owners through strategic transactions.

Rebecca's practice centers on mergers and acquisitions and related corporate transactions within the middle market. She has extensive experience handling buy- and sell-side M&A, corporate divestitures (including carve-outs), and succession planning transactions, and her clients routinely rely on her to guide them through their most sensitive and strategic endeavors.

Rebecca launched her legal career at the world's largest law firm, where she gained deep experience advising private equity firms in their M&A activities. She continues to represent private equity sponsors and their portfolio companies today but has since expanded her client base to include privately held businesses, family enterprises, and ownership groups across diverse industries. Rebecca's advice is results-oriented and actionable, and clients value her unwavering focus on delivering efficient outcomes and building long-term relationships.

Rebecca serves on the firm's Executive Recruiting Committee.
