OVERVIEW

Jamie loves the fast-paced nature of intellectual property.

With an extensive background working across firms in intellectual property, Jamie assists senior paralegals and attorneys within the Technology Manufacturing & Transportation - Intellectual Property practice group to ensure accuracy and timeliness of U.S. and PCT patent applications.

Jamie strives to be as efficient and helpful as possible, helping with national phase and direct filings with foreign associates and preparing documentation to complete the filing formalities and issuance of domestic and foreign applications, including assignments, power of attorney, declarations, information disclosure statements, legalized documents, issue fees, and payment of maintenance fees and annuities.
