OVERVIEW

Gabriella assists clients with real estate transactions and land use matters.

Gabriella's client-centered approach and effective communication skills allow her to best serve clients. A lifelong learner, Gabriella does not shy away from digging deep into complex legal issues. Her genuine curiosity drives her to ask questions to get to the heart of any matter.

As a summer associate at Husch Blackwell, Gabriella assisted with various transactional real property matters, including purchase and sale, leasing, and development. Gabriella's in-house corporate internship gave her experience to better meet the needs of her clients, allowing her to view legal matters from a client's perspective.

A team player who strives to meet clients' needs, Gabriella is known for her attention to detail, diligence, and empathic approach to work. Her ability to understand different perspectives and commitment to excellence make her a valuable asset to the firm.
