OVERVIEW

Adam helps clients comply with environmental regulations.

With an undergraduate degree in environmental sciences and a passion for nature, Adam is naturally drawn to environmental law and is committed to helping clients navigate the complex, evolving landscape of environmental regulations. He understands this is a rapidly shifting area of law and thrives on helping clients stay ahead of changes.

Adam gained valuable experience as a summer associate at Husch Blackwell, where he worked across various departments, performing research, writing memos, and compiling legal trends. He appreciated the opportunity to engage in real-world legal work and enjoyed the supportive and collaborative environment at the firm.

Known as a friendly and knowledgeable professional, Adam excels at providing clear, thorough, and practical legal assistance. His ability to communicate complex information in an understandable way makes him a trusted advisor for clients.
