OVERVIEW

Dallas assists clients with their private wealth and estate planning needs.

Dallas drafts and reviews essential estate planning documents such as wills, trusts, and powers of attorney, with an eye to the best tax strategies. First drawn to a legal career out of a desire to provide personalized assistance to clients, he's excited to work in a field where he can directly support individuals and their families.

During law school, Dallas excelled in tax classes and served as president of the Corporate and Business Law Society, an experience that provided insights into the priorities of business owners and solidified his interest in the intricacies of financial planning. As a summer associate at the firm, Dallas had the opportunity to dig into estate planning documents and connect directly with clients.

Known as exceedingly technical, competent, and relatable, Dallas seeks to build relationships with clients and is committed to making clients feel comfortable and well-served in their legal needs.
