OVERVIEW

Rachel is a seasoned paralegal with over a decade of experience in commercial real estate.

She has supported attorneys and clients over the years in acquisition, disposition, debt, and equity transactions involving retail and restaurants, industrial, mixed-use, master-planned communities, and multifamily affordable housing.

Throughout her career, she continues to provide essential legal support through the entire cycle of transactions. Her goal is to ensure that transactions run smoothly and that deadlines are met from inception to closing.

Today, Rachel applies her vast knowledge and expertise in supporting the firm's Real Estate and Development team across several offices and for a wide range of clients with varying real estate needs. She is committed to seeing all transactions through and providing clients with the legal service they expect and deserve.
