OVERVIEW

Naomi takes great pride in being detail-oriented and going above and beyond for client and attorney teams to ensure that everything runs smoothly.

Before stepping into her paralegal role, she was part of the firm's Administrative Resource Team. During that time, she was involved in profiling documents, assisting with in-office duties, submitting invoices, and handling various other projects. This role allowed her to learn the ins and outs of firm operations and gain valuable experiences.

Naomi is passionate about attending law school soon, but for now, she is focused on gaining more experience in the legal realm. Presently, Naomi supports senior paralegals and attorneys on the Mass Tort team with document profiling and correspondence. Known for her proactive and communication skills, as well as her attention to detail, she strives to contribute positively to her team's success.
