OVERVIEW

Anthony assists clients in managing and preserving assets by guiding them through a wide range of transactional and estate planning matters.

He chose to pursue a career in law to take on demanding challenges and find fulfillment in solving problems for clients. Drawn to the idea of making a real impact and delivering practical solutions, Anthony gained valuable experience as a summer associate at Husch Blackwell, where he drafted legal memoranda and supported both transactional and litigation matters across Private Equity, Real Estate, Mergers & Acquisitions, and Commercial Litigation practice groups.

He collaborates closely with partners and utilizes strong research and communication skills to address complex legal issues and provide practical solutions for clients. During law school, Anthony founded and led the Real Estate Law Organization, gaining leadership skills and deepening his understanding of real estate and transactional law. He also served as a student attorney in the Entrepreneurship & Community Development Clinic at SLU Law, where he provided legal services to five small business and nonprofit clients, handling entity formation and dissolution, drafting bylaws, preparing tax-exempt applications, managing all client communications—including meetings with Spanish-speaking clients—and filing corporate documents with the Secretary of State.

Anthony's professional journey also includes an internship as a sales associate at Northwestern Mutual and a position as a tax return associate with Joel Kamil & Associates, where he developed strong financial and client service skills. During his summer associate experience, he completed a
