Husch Blackwell LLP Represents Black Hills Corp. in $215 Million IPP Sale Transaction

Husch Blackwell LLP provided legal representation to Black Hills Corp. of Rapid City, S.D. in its sale of a 49.9 percent member equity interest in Black Hills Colorado IPP, LLC for $215 million to AIA Energy North America LLC, an infrastructure investment platform managed by Argo Infrastructure Partners. Black Hills Colorado IPP owns and operates a 200 megawatt, combined-cycle natural gas generating facility located in Pueblo, Colorado.

The transaction, announced today, continues the firm's long-standing relationship with Black Hills, which has included assistance in multiple power plant sale and joint venture transactions.

The Husch Blackwell team was comprised of partners Brogan Sullivan, Robert Attai, John Crossley, and Tom Molins; senior counsel Ali Nelson, and associate Andrew Bergman.
