Former Judicial Clerk Joins Husch Blackwell

Timothy Hilton Starts in Firm's Kansas City Office

Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that Timothy A. Hilton joined the firm's Kansas City, Mo., office as an Associate. He will focus his practice in Labor & Employment law.

Prior to joining the firm, Hilton clerked for The Hon. Greg Kays of the U.S. District Court, Western District of Missouri (2009-2011). Hilton reviewed substantive motions and performed extensive legal research and writing while managing half of Judge Kays' caseload. In addition, he gained experience observing and assisting in all phases of civil and criminal casework.

Hilton received his J.D., with distinction, from the University of Iowa College of Law (2009), where he was Associate Editor of The Journal of Corporation Law, Volume 34, and was a staff member of The Journal of Corporation Law, Volume 33. He received his B.A. from the University of Missouri - Columbia (2006), where he was President and Webmaster of the Student Athletic Board.

Husch Blackwell's Labor & Employment group is anchored by experienced attorneys who guide employers, from start-up businesses to Fortune 500 companies, regionally and nationally. The team's attorneys assist clients in virtually every area of the employment sector, including healthcare, telecommunications, light and heavy manufacturing, printing, radio and television, public utilities, municipalities, governmental entities, construction, trucking, sales and hospitality.
