Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that partner Chalon Clark has been recognized as a recipient of the 2017 "40 Under Forty" Achievement Awards by The Network Journal (TNJ).

Clark, a member of the firm’s Financial Services & Capital Markets group, serves on Husch Blackwell’s Diversity Council. She assists clients in disputes involving contracts, review of contracts and leases to identify potential litigation risks, employer/employee relations, collection-related matters, foreclosures, fraud, banking, partnership, real property, mortgage lending, construction and brokerage/securities issues.

Clark is active in the Dallas Association of Young Lawyers and the Dallas Bar Association, and serves as a Mentor for the Dallas Women Lawyers Association.

The annual "40 Under Forty” Achievement Awards recognizes young African-Americans who have proven to be exceptional performers in their industry and committed contributors to the advancement of their community. This year’s class will be profiled in the Summer 2017 issue of TNJ and honored at the 20th Annual “40 Under Forty” Achievement Awards Dinner on Thursday, June 15, 2017, in New York City.
