NEWS RELEASES

PUBLISHED: NOVEMBER 7, 2022

Husch Blackwell Elects 29 to 2023 New Partner Class

Services

Commercial Litigation

Corporate

Development Incentives & Tax Credits

Healthcare Regulatory & Compliance Counseling

Insolvency & Commercial Bankruptcy

Intellectual Property

Labor & Employment

Mergers & Acquisitions

Product Liability

Toxic Tort

Industries

Education

Energy & Natural Resources

Financial Services & Capital Markets

Food Systems

Husch Blackwell has elected 29 attorneys to the firm's partnership, effective January 1, 2023.

This year's partner class reflects the continued high demand for Husch Blackwell's services and the strong pipeline of talent at the firm. The addition of these partners reinforces the firm's capabilities in each of its six industry groups.

The new partner class demonstrates a commitment to leadership, initiative and the ability to deliver sophisticated legal advice on matters of great complexity and importance to the firm's clients. This class includes members in nine practice areas: commercial litigation; real estate & development; labor & employment; intellectual property; insolvency & commercial bankruptcy; corporate, M&A & securities; healthcare regulatory; development incentives & tax credits; and product liability & toxic tort.

The Husch Blackwell partnership class of 2023 includes:

© 2026 HUSCH BLACKWELL LLP. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED

Jesse Ainlay

Mashaal Bhaidani

Jenna Brofsky

Taylor Concannon Hausmann

Ashley DeVerna

Max Ellenbecker

Daan Erikson

Justin Fezzi

Danielle Gilbert

Kamron Hasan

Lauren Hayes

Caleb Holzaepfel

Mike Kelly

Micah King

Chris Kline

Natalie Garcia Lashinsky

Karen Luong

Laura Malugade

Chris Miles

James O'Shea

Jackson Otto

Magda Patitsas

Shannon Peters

Chris Peterson

Sean Quinn

Tim Ribelin

Bert Seefeldt

Nikki Tate

Noreen Vergara

"Our new partner class stretches coast to coast with attorneys from 11 offices across the United States, which includes partners hailing from Oakland to Boston," said Husch Blackwell Chair Catherine Hanaway. "We continue to grow our practice groups to reflect client demand, for deep expertise and bench strength as well as real expertise in our clients' industries."

The firm promoted attorneys from offices across the United States, including Austin, Boston, Chattanooga, Denver, Kansas City, Milwaukee, Omaha, Phoenix, Springfield, St. Louis, and The Link virtual office. Members of the new partner class in the firm's Link office are located across the country, including those in Chicago, Dallas, Los Angeles, Oakland, CA, and Washington, DC.

The partner class comprises of 41% women, 24% racial and ethnic minorities and 7% LGBTQ+. Husch Blackwell was recently the recipient of Mansfield Plus certification for the fourth consecutive year and a perfect score on the Human Rights Campaign Corporate Equality Index for the seventh year in a row.

© 2026 HUSCH BLACKWELL LLP. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED