

CANADA, MEXICO, CENTRAL, & SOUTH AMERICA

Husch Blackwell regularly represents clients in Canada, Mexico, Central and South America, and the Caribbean. Drawing on our breadth of experience and strong relationships with top local law firms, we advise clients across industries on export compliance, the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA), the Patriot Act, mergers and acquisitions, distribution agreements, and other matters.

In deciding whether to directly handle a project or instead supervise local firms, we assess which option will save the client the most time and money. Regardless of the jurisdiction and the Husch Blackwell attorney managing the project, clients know they can expect to communicate with counsel in the language, at the hours and in the terminology they prefer.

Representative Experience

Advised on general corporate and joint venture matters in Peru.

Negotiation of distribution agreements in Chile and Ecuador.

Advised private energy company in effort to obtain concession to explore for oil and gas and finance operations in Guatemala.

Represented first commercial producer of oil and gas in

The commercial viability of our biofuel refining technology is made possible through international collaboration among world-class organizations. Husch Blackwell helped facilitate these relationships and the financing necessary to move our projects forward.

— Robert Tripp, CEO, Benefuel Inc.

Contact Information

Mark T. Benedict
816.283.4677
mark.benedict@
huschblackwell.com

Frans J. von Kaenel
314.480.1744
frans.vonkaenel@
huschblackwell.com

M. Scott LeBlanc
414.978.5512
scott.leblanc@
huschblackwell.com

Belize.

Represented clients operating in Mexico in a wide variety of transactions including commercial real estate leasing, condominium and resort development, import and export matters, NAFTA-related issues, and contracting with the Mexican government.

Counseled private investor in gaining control of Nevis corporation with operations in Central America and several hundred investors throughout Europe and the Americas.

Advised public office supply company on its investment in a privately held company in Mexico.