

EVASION & CIRCUMVENTION

Husch Blackwell guides organizations in navigating the pitfalls and maximizing the legal opportunities posed by Title IV of the Trade Facilitation and Trade Enforcement Act (TFTEA) of 2016. Our team has one of the most active practices in Washington on antidumping and countervailing duties (AD/CVD) matters, particularly those involving Asian countries. We also have extensive experience handling U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) and trade remedies litigation.

Our attorneys review and assess evasion and circumvention allegations, file allegation documents, defend importers and producers against claims of evasion and circumvention, represent clients in hearings before the CBP and the U.S. Court of International Trade, and ensure that individuals and companies are protected against allegations of criminal misconduct.

Husch Blackwell has a deep understanding of the law pertaining to international trade in the United States.
